CRóNICAS DE LA TARDE

SYNOPSIS

On Monday, January 6 at 2:30 p.m., CRÓNICAS DE LA TARDE started airing on eltrece, an investigative program that will look into the biggest police cases in recent times, as well as the shocking cases that are part of our criminal history.

?Crónicas de la tarde? will seek to shed light on those questions that arise in the face of such violent cases: "What happened? / How did he die? / What was the motive? / Were there any witnesses? ?/ Was justice done??

There are many questions. With the help of Mónica Gutiérrez and the team of professionals, we will delve far to find all the answers and get closer to the truth.

HOSTED BY

Mónica Gutiérrez hosts the program, accompanied by a team of leading professionals, including Dr. Enrique De Rosa, a prestigious forensic psychiatrist; Christian Poletti, criminal lawyer; Ricardo Canaletti, renowned police journalist and Germán Monaco, Ignacio Juliano and Martín Candalaft, who are in charge of live mobile units where the events occur. In addition, doctors, lawyers, psychologists and criminalists will also participate.
