

AMENTE VOS

SOLAMENTE VOS

SYNOPSIS

Juan Cousteau leads a very 'placid' life: he's married, has five children and for the past fifteen years he's been the director of a renowned orchestra. But, his world is about to turn upside down when his wife Ingrid, 'La Polaca', tells him 'she needs space to find herself'. The worst part is that he loses his job due to his marital crisis. However, his long time best friend, Felix, who is president of a record label, is there for him: offering him a position in his company and a place to stay in one of his apartments. And so, Juan meets Aurora, his new next-door neighbor. The attraction is mutual and immediate. She is a hairdresser who owns a day spa on the same block where they both live. Shortly after casually meeting in the elevator or running into each other on their way in or out of the apartment building, Juan finds out that this attractive woman turns out to be his best friend's lover.
